BROOKS SEEKING 3-PEAT

Smash GC Captain Brooks Koepka is the only repeat winner of a LIV Golf tournament, having won the first two events in Jeddah. A look at those two wins.

2022 Koepka beat his then-Smash teammate Peter Uihlein on the third playoff hole after both players finished regulation at 12 under. It was Koepka's first victory of any kind in 20 months since injuries threatened his career.

Said Koepka: "I didn't know if my career was over for a second. It's nice to be able to come back and be able to win."

2023 Koepka beat Talor Gooch on the second playoff hole after both players finished at 14 under. The win enabled Koepka to move up into the third-place bonus-paying position in the Individual Championship standings.

Said Koepka: "I felt like I had to win, and I did my part. Super fortunate to kind of squeak in there."

Gooch, who had wrapped up the season-long Individual Champion title before the playoff, is now a teammate of Koepka's after an off-season trade.

The win was Koepka's first since becoming a first-time father three months earlier with the birth of his son Crew.

GLOBAL SUCCESS Wins by Country

2009 MASTERS: RECORD 11 BIRDIES

Kim set a tournament record in his Masters debut in 2009 with 11 birdies in the second round en route to shooting a 7-under 65. "To make 11 in one day is pretty special. And obviously to do it at Augusta is amazing," Kim said after his round. "... It feels like a 58 right now."

KIM RETURNS TO PRO GOLF

Anthony Kim, who retired from golf nearly 12 years ago, makes his official return to professional competition this week at LIV Golf Jeddah. Kim joins LIV Golf as a season-long Wild Card player.

"After stepping away from the game years ago due to injury, I'm happy to officially announce my return to the world of professional golf," said the 38-year-old Kim. "It's been a long time coming, and I'm very grateful for all the highs, lows and lessons learned from the first part of my career. I want to compete with the best players in the world, and I'm on a mission to prove to myself that I can win again. The next step on that journey starts now, and I'm excited to give everything I've got this season on the LIV Golf League."

"LIV Golf was launched to create new opportunities for players and fans that drive this sport forward in exciting ways, and when I think of Anthony Kim, I can't imagine a more perfect fit for what we're trying to do. His talent is undeniable, and we are thrilled to welcome him back to professional golf with our league," said LIV Golf Commissioner and CEO Greg Norman. "It's clear that he has the fire to win again and show why he was one of the most compelling players in the world, and we will support him on that mission as he works to earn his way back to the top of the game."

Kim will compete in all remaining 2024 LIV Golf regular season tournaments as one of two Wild Card players aiming to accrue points in the league's individual standings and earn a team place in 2025. Kim's joins season-long Wild Card player Hudson Swafford, competing against the LIV Golf League's 13 four-player teams across the 14-event global schedule.

Kim has not played in a professional event since early May of 2012 at the Wells Fargo Championship, when he withdrew after the first round due to tendinitis in his left arm. A month later, he tore the Achilles tendon in his left leg and underwent surgery.

- Royal Greens becomes the first course to host three LIV Golf tournaments, having hosted the regular-season finale in each of the first two seasons

- The signature hole is the 180-yard par-3 16th located next to the Red Sea

Two-time defending champion BROOKS KOEPKA, the Smash GC captain, said his gameplan at Royal Greens is “just stay out of the desert, stay out of the bunkers ... I like this place. What can I say?”

“It’s a really good golf course. The way the wind blows here, you have to hit a lot of different shots. It asks all the questions. You have to put it in the fairway to hit key shots. But to me it’s a big iron-play golf course.”
