THE ADELAIDE EXPERIENCE

LIV Golf Adelaide earned the World Golf Award as 2023's World's Best Golf Event of the Year, and this year's return trip promises to be even more popular.

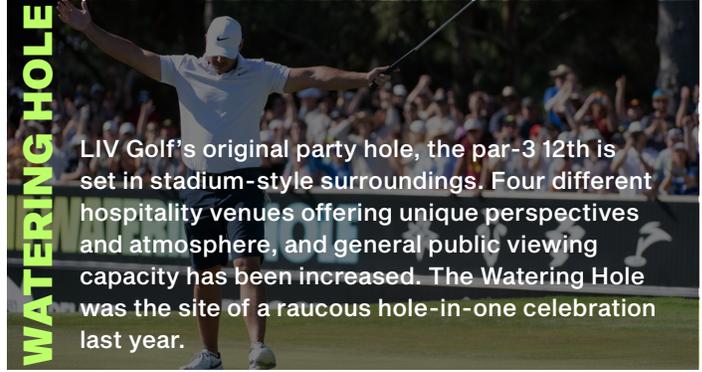

Approximately 30,000 fans are expected for each of the three days of competition at The Grange Golf Course, which would bring total attendance well above the record 77,076 fans who attended last year's tournament.

"The inaugural LIV Golf Adelaide showed the world how global audiences are embracing LIV Golf, which is breathing new life into the sport," said LIV Golf Commissioner and CEO Greg Norman. "It was the highlight tournament of our league's first official season and a historic demonstration of competition, entertainment and fanfare that golf fans deserve."

Said Peter Malinauskas, Premier of South Australia: "It was Adelaide and South Australia that took the world by storm last year, and we are very, very excited to replicate it again in 2024."

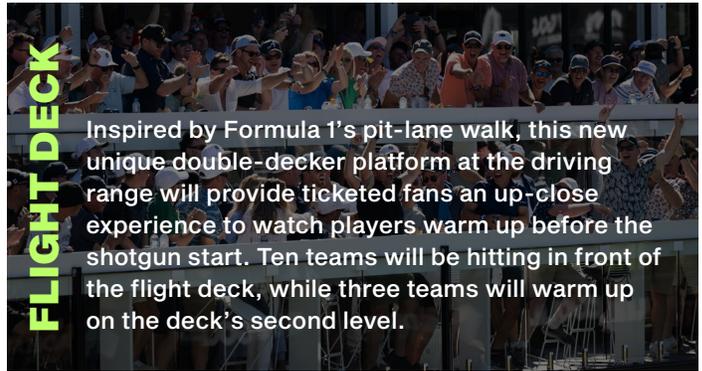

Cameron Smith, the captain of the all-Australian Ripper GC team, looks forward to seeing the growth of LIV Golf Adelaide in its second year.

"There's obviously a want in Australia, I think, for really high-quality golf, and I think the fans here really enjoyed what LIV offers," Smith said. "There's no reason why we can't make it bigger."

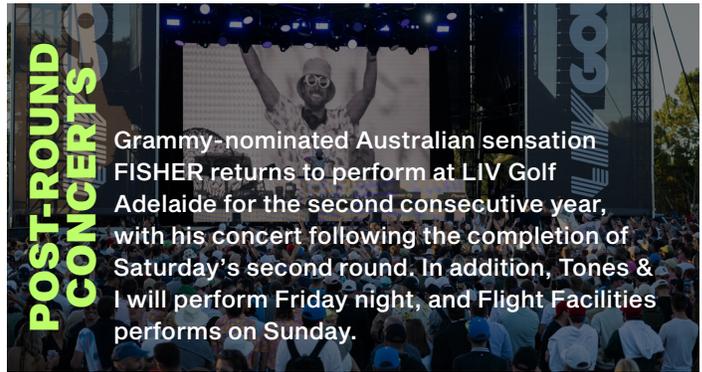

WATERING HOLE

LIV Golf's original party hole, the par-3 12th is set in stadium-style surroundings. Four different hospitality venues offering unique perspectives and atmosphere, and general public viewing capacity has been increased. The Watering Hole was the site of a raucous hole-in-one celebration last year.

FLIGHT DECK

Inspired by Formula 1's pit-lane walk, this new unique double-decker platform at the driving range will provide ticketed fans an up-close experience to watch players warm up before the shotgun start. Ten teams will be hitting in front of the flight deck, while three teams will warm up on the deck's second level.

POST-ROUND CONCERTS

Grammy-nominated Australian sensation FISHER returns to perform at LIV Golf Adelaide for the second consecutive year, with his concert following the completion of Saturday's second round. In addition, Tones & I will perform Friday night, and Flight Facilities performs on Sunday.

- $64.9 million in direct expenditure
- 43,253 visitor nights in Adelaide
- 77,076 attendees across the event
- 41% of ticket purchasers from out-of-state
- 37 countries represented by LIV Golf attendees

"To have the home crowds like that, that was a highlight of my golfing career."

MARC LEISHMAN

"I would go as far as to say this is the best event I've ever played. I think I'm probably biased a little bit being from Australia, but this is what LIV Golf is about."

CAMERON SMITH
